("Argent"), by and through their respective undersigned counsel, hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

- 1. MGM owes money to an entity that has performed services for it;
- 2. MGM is unsure, however, as to which of the defendants it is required by law to pay those funds and is concerned that if it were to pay the funds to one of the defendants, then it would face liability from the other defendants for making that choice;
- 3. MGM brought this interpleader action seeking (a) to be allowed to deposit the funds with the registry of the Court, (b) an order that the defendants be enjoined from instituting any action against MGM for recovery of any of the funds, (c) an order that the defendants be required to interplead and settle among themselves their rights to the funds, and (d) an order that MGM be discharged from all liability;
 - 4. The United States has a senior interest as to all parties to the funds;
- 5. Based on the foregoing, the Court should enter an order that judgment be entered in this case providing the following:
 - a. MGM, at its earliest convenience, deposit and pay into the registry of this Court the interpleader fund at issue which totals $97.818.70;
 - b. MGM be discharged from any and all liability whatsoever as to the $97.818.70 interplead;
 - c. all of the defendants are perpetually enjoined and restrained from making any further claim against MGM from recovery of the $97.818.70 or anything growing out of the same;
 - d. the United States has a senior interest in the $97.818.70 interplead as to all parties and is therefore entitled to a distribution of the $97.818.70 interplead;

- e. that once MGM deposits and pays the funds into the registry of this Court, the Clerk of Court is directed to disburse the entire amount of the interplead funds, totalling $97,818.70, to the United States;
- f. that the IRS will apply the $97.818.70 interplead to the two tax liabilities listed on the Notice of Levy dated November 2, 2011, for taxpayer Argent Custom Furniture, LLC, as attached as Exhibit 4 to the complaint, and if those liabilities have been otherwise satisfied by the time the IRS receives the $97.818.70 interplead, then to any other outstanding federal tax liability of Argent Custom Furniture, LLC; and

g. each party shall bear its respective fees and costs associated with this action.
